

DIASPORA GARDENS on Madeline Island

To nourish body, spirit, earth, love of learning, & community

WELCOME!

Hoop House Helper

DIASPORA GARDENS features Layla the goat (& more animal friends), Lake Superior, unique eco systems, gardens, woodlands, a simple homestead, kayaks, Island activities and more...

Prep for Market

DIASPORA GARDENS Micro-Farm holds opportunities for sustainable garden & animal care; environmental education; project development; unique creative programming; and lake fun.

DIASPORA GARDENS is the dream of Regina M. Laroche (Farmer, Artist/Educator, Spiritual Director) & Jeff Theune (Alternative Educator, Carpenter). In cooperation with the natural environment, creatures wild & domesticated, family, friends, & community, Regina & Jeff use sustainable permaculture methods to cultivate healthy food, learning, community, & lifestyle on the edge of Lake Superior.
